

Stay Safe

Welcome to our penultimate edition of “Keeping in Touch”. As lockdown restrictions are beginning to relax, we too are easing off on our weekly bulletin. However, don’t worry, as we are also preparing the Summer “Hill Street News” which will be emailed in mid-June.

In the meantime, we thought that we would dig into our files for some archive images and reunion photos – can you spot yourself or some of your classmates? See our Gallery here! If you have any old College photos that you would like to scan and share, please send them to: alumni@staloyusius.org

Remember that if you have lost touch with school friends, we can help you to reconnect. Just drop a line to the above email address and if we have their contact details, we will contact them on your behalf to ensure they are happy to share their details.

Classes of 1958 - 1961

This just in from Francis McCrossin (1958)

This first June edition of “Keeping in Touch” reminds me that there was to be a reunion on the 19th of this month for the Classes of 1958 - 1961. Alas, five mile travel restrictions and two metre social distancing inevitably has meant postponement; there is a slight possibility of meeting in October but it is much more likely that this reunion will not now take place until June 2021.

Please look out for further notifications from the Development Team.

St Aloysius' Lockdown A-Z

Our pupils (and staff!) were put to the test of creating a 26-word story using each letter of the alphabet. The winner sums up eloquently the lockdown experience for a pupil:

Aloysians Behave Competently Despite Estrangement From Garnethill
However Isolation Just Keeps Letting Minds Navigate Online Producing Quarantine Ready Students Tackling Unimaginable Viruses With XL
Yawns Zzzzz...

Brain teaser

This Week's Brain teaser

In the College's history, how many Head Masters have there been?

Answers as usual to alumni@stalloysius.org. This week's prize is your choice of a St Aloysius' mug or tie.

Last week's brain teaser:

Francis and Ronnie made arrangements to meet at a cafe at 2 pm. Francis thinks his watch is 25 minutes fast, although it is 10 minutes slow. Ronnie thinks his watch is 10 minutes slow, but it is 5 minutes fast. What will happen if they both aim to arrive on time?

Answer: Francis will be 35 minutes late. Ronnie will arrive at 1:45 p.m., 15 minutes ahead of time.

No correct answers this week, you're all slacking!

On This Day ...

Happy birthday to any of our OAs who celebrate their birthday today, 3 June. Other eminent Gemini personalities who share the same birthday are Tony Curtis and Ca Thomas Winning. Did you know that, on this day, in the year:-

- 1937 The Duke of Windsor marries Wallis Simpson.
- 1956 Third-class travel on British Railways ends
- 1962 An Air France Boeing 707 crashes on take-off at Orly Airport killing 130 people.
- 1963 Pope John XXIII the 261st Pope of the Roman Catholic Church died at age 81 less than 5 years after becoming Pope.
- 1989 Beginning of the Tiananmen Square Massacre as Chinese troops open fire on pro-democracy supporters in Beijing

Jokes of the Week

A 'Dominic Cummings'
is now a golfing term.
It's a really long drive
that goes way
out of bounds,
but there's no penalty.

Too many people leave their body to science.

I'm going to leave mine to Geography and see if they can do anything with it.

I was going to make a joke about Latin nouns

But then declined.

Reflections

Life is like a round of golf
With many a turn and twist.
But the game is much too sweet and short
To curse the shots you've missed.
Sometimes you'll hit it straight and far
Sometimes the putts roll true.
But each round has its errant shots
And troubles to play through.
So always swing with courage
No matter what the lie.
And never let the hazards
Destroy the joy inside.
And keep a song within your heart
Give thanks that you can play.
For the round is much too short and sweet
To let it slip away.

We pray for everyone within St Aloysius' College Community: for our physical, emotional and mental wellbeing, for peace of mind and for all those who suffer the consequences of the current pandemic.

May God grant health to the sick, strength to those who care for them, comfort to families and salvation to all the victims who have died.
